

ARTICLE FOR THE ETWALL EXPRESS - AUGUST ISSUE

As we start to think of the new school year ahead and welcoming all of the new children to preschool, I would like to say a huge thank you to all of our staff that have had to cope with everything that this past year has thrown at us. Without such an amazing team preschool would not have been the welcoming and safe place that it is.

We are very much looking forward to meeting our new children and their families and getting to know them. We have lots of exciting activities prepared for them when they start in September.

Lastly, we would like to wish all of the children that are starting school in September lots of luck. We know they are going to be amazing and will have a great time.

30 hours free childcare is available for 3 and 4-year old's of working parents in England. To find out if your child is eligible, please use the following link.
